

Alan Boyd, Assoc. Dir. of Libraries, Oberlin College. 2-18-14 OhioDIG presentation slides

The screenshot shows a web browser window with the URL cdm15963.contentdm.oclc.org. The browser's address bar and tabs are visible at the top. The website's main header features the text "THE FIVE COLLEGES OF OHIO DIGITAL COLLECTIONS" in large, bold, white letters against a dark background. Below this, the names of the five colleges are listed: DENISON, KENYON, OBERLIN, OHIO WESLEYAN, and WOOSTER. A navigation bar includes "Home" and "Browse All" links, along with "Log in", "Favorites", and "? Help" options. A search bar is located below the navigation bar, with a "Search" button and a link to "Advanced Search".

The main content area is divided into two columns. The left column is titled "All Collections" and features two collection entries:

- AMAM Bulletin--OBE: Includes a note about transitioning the collection to a new server, a list of sample images (including a book cover titled "BULLETIN"), and a description of the Allen Memorial Art Museum Bulletin published since 1944. A "more..." link is provided.
- Archives Museum Collection--OBE: Includes a description of the Oberlin College Archives Museum Collection, which consists of 3-D items, paintings, drawings, and prints. A "more..." link is provided.

The right column is titled "About the collections" and contains two paragraphs of text:

- The first paragraph states: "Here you will find a sampling of the rich holdings of archives, libraries, and academic departments of the Five Colleges of Ohio."
- The second paragraph states: "Teaching and research needs drive the digitization projects now underway. This website and the collaborations which created many of the collections are funded in part with the generous support of Andrew W. Mellon Foundation."
