

OhioDIG Round Robin notes — March 26, 2019
Worthington Libraries – Northwest Branch

No Featured Update.

Best Practices Exchange – Columbus – April 29 to May 2.

SOA Annual Meeting – Akron – May 17. Preconference on May 16 on Born Digital items.

MAC – Detroit – April 3 to 6

Amy	Thomas	Kent State University Ashtabula	Presenter
Elizabeth	Williams-Clymer	Kenyon College	Renovation in progress, no digitization to report right now.
Kristen	Newby	Ohio History Connection	Finishing scanning for grant scanning for WWI project
Jen	Cabiya	Ohio History Connection	New newspaper digitization project coordinator
Phil	Sager	Ohio History Connection	Ohio Memory CDM enhancements
Sophia	McCartney	Ohio University	Student library worker at Ohio University Libraries, transcription, metadata
Ginnie	Dressler	Kent State University	Digitizing Sanborn fire insurance maps, digital humanities with College of Arts & Sciences, symposium on pertinent issues, digitizing materials in last 20 years of copyright protection
Mark	Bloom	University of Akron	Gearing up for sesquicentennial

OhioDIG Round Robin notes — March 26, 2019
Worthington Libraries – Northwest Branch

Brittany	Hayes	University of Akron
Amy	McCrory	Ohio State University	Gearing up for sesquicentennial, book digitization workflow creation, including condition of the book and metadata concerns, new Phase One IXG copy stand camera, Phase One roundtable in Chicago for 2019
Jen	Johnson	State Library of Ohio	Ohio Digital Network (DPLA), IMLS/LSTA grant funding continues to be available, contact Cindy Boyden or Evan Struble for more information
Penelope	Shumaker	State Library of Ohio	Most recent DPLA harvest was in March, NASA At My Library training at the State Library of Ohio, summer reading training, deadline to register is Monday
Karmen	Beecroft	Ohio University	SOA conference will feature space exploration topics, documentation of job duties as term is up soon, new lab manager has been hired
Laura	Smith	Ohio University	New photo archivist at Ohio University, started March 1
Nick	Ver Steegh	Ohio University	Prototype that uses the CDM API to create a dashboard to manipulate data along geospatial/temporal lines, digital humanities tools
Amia	Wheatley	Cleveland Public Library	Exhibits for 150th anniversary, John G. White (special collections donator), and staff over the past 150 years, digitization of relevant materials, Magic Box
Jody	DeRidder	OCLC	Authorities control, looking for committee members for NISO Standards Committee
Justin	Bridges	Miami University	Digitizing library publications, started with yearbooks, starting with materials created in 1809

OhioDIG Round Robin notes — March 26, 2019
Worthington Libraries – Northwest Branch

Hydy	Cates	Columbus State Community College	Has new systems librarian/archivist on staff
Madeleine	Fix		Freedom Center in Cinci, using archives for education
Sarah	Whybrew	Otterbein	Digitization of journals published by the university, Cornell diaries collection from mid-1890s, migrating from Digital Commons to CDM
Ian	Ferguson	Kent State SLIS	Scanning journals and photographs, learning the digitization process
Sidney	Gao	University of Cinci	Migrating to Samvera, and implementing digital preservation policies
Susan	Allen	Worthington Libraries	Digitizing and uploading yearbooks, Worthington News to Ohio Memory for upload (1925-1963), partnership with Worthington Historical Society to do oral histories, using Padcaster
Kara	Reuter	Worthington Libraries	Supports web services, including digitization
Alicia	Wilkins	Logan County Libraries	NORWELD grant to create oral histories, planned digitization of local high school newsletters, investigating group for "highest points in each US state"
Zaineb	Bayahy	Capital University	Student conducted digitization of student newspaper, quality control of existing images
Jim	Layden	Ohio Dominican University	Processing university archives, identifying materials to digitize, starting with the student newspaper and yearbooks

OhioDIG Round Robin notes — March 26, 2019
Worthington Libraries – Northwest Branch

Matthew	Cook	Capital University	Analysis of collection make-up, determining access for digitization, acting as gatekeeper for archival collections
Justin	Crawfis	Findlay Hancock Library	Adding materials to Ohio Memory, scrapbooks of newspaper clipping of the local selective service commission, digitizing old newspapers (outsourced)
Angela	O'Neal	Columbus Metropolitan Library	Sesquicentennial planning, moving images to OCLC Preservation Archive, new branch being opened in Dublin, CONTENTdm Users Group meeting in Indianapolis this year
Aaron	O'Donovan	Columbus Metropolitan Library	Moving images to OCLC Preservation Archive, identifying scanned collections that haven't been made available online yet, Smart Sheets as a spreadsheet tool for project management, uploading property records and Sanborn fire insurance maps
Nicole	Sutton	Columbus Metropolitan Library	Customer service representative at CML, and digitization work at Otterbein as well
Jenni	Salamon	Ohio History Connection	Local History Alliance digitization grants, continued work on OHC digitization projects, Ohio History Day (4-12 grade) open for signups
Emily	Rinaman	Tiffin Seneca Public Library	Collaboration with Heidelberg University to assist with career readiness, conducting oral histories at assisted living facility using iPad Pros, next session occurring in September
Jo Anne	Schiefer	Tiffin Seneca Public Library	Seneca County Probate Court, digitizing naturalization record, Seneca County Commissioner notes of the first county commissioners
John	Deweese	TLCPL	Postcards, block cards, NWOCHG
Barb	Sedlock	Defiance College	Getting university offices to give materials to the archives instead of tossing them

OhioDIG Round Robin notes — March 26, 2019
Worthington Libraries – Northwest Branch

Janet	Carleton	Ohio University	New photography lab manager hired for medium format photography, new Kent State SLIS intern, a medievalist who can work with Greek/Latin
-------	----------	-----------------	--