01:16:38 Andrew Verhoff: A few places on the Ohio History Connection's website summarize grants that are available for history, broadly defined:
<https://www.ohiohistory.org/preserve/state-historic-preservation-office/hpgrants> and
<https://www.ohiohistory.org/preserve/local-history-services/funding-opportunities>

01:19:28 Janet Carleton: <http://ohrab.org/grants/regrant/>

01:20:16 Andrew Verhoff: Thank for posting all these links, Janet. Very helpful!

01:32:16 Janet Carleton: Andy, strange has never stopped you! ;)

01:35:20 John Dewees (he/him): Anyone have any potential projects they want to workshop live with these funders?

01:35:55 Janet Carleton: Betsy can you speak to the membership component?

01:37:20 Andrew Verhoff: To summarize: digitization hubs: Toledo Public Library, Columbus Metro Library, Cleveland Public Library, Public Library of Cincy and Hamilton Co,, - one more?

01:37:46 John Dewees (he/him): That is all of them!

01:38:21 Andrew Verhoff: Thanks John - and yes, Janet :-)

01:39:01 Don Yarman (OPLIN): Isn't there one at SEO in Caldwell?

01:39:39 Don Yarman (OPLIN): (Guess not. Just equipment.)

01:40:33 John Dewees (he/him): (I bet I could have spent that money)

01:42:02 Mariana Branch: If we would like to write a planning grant or strategic planning grant, do you have recommendations of professionals that we should consider hiring to assist with that scope of the project?

01:42:58 Mariana Branch: Figure out how to attack the historical collection and digitizing it. Sorry no mic today

01:43:02 Janet Carleton: If digitization/digital preservation can poll the OhioDIG List

01:43:09 Cindy Boyden - OH: As a funder, we are unable to recommend specific professionals.

01:43:37 Janet Carleton: <https://ohiodig.org/listserv>

01:45:13 Eugene Rutigliano (he/him): Are lists of successful grants from funders available?

01:46:09 Mariana Branch: Thank you all!

01:46:11 Cindy Boyden - OH: Hi, Eugene. There are some examples of previously awarded grants on the State Lib's website. <https://library.ohio.gov/services-for-libraries/lsta-grants/>

01:46:45 David Merkowitz - Ohio Humanities: <http://www.ohiohumanities.org/previous-grant-awards/> We should have our FY2020 grants up soon.

01:47:10 Virginia Dressler: <https://ohrab.org/grants/regrant/> has past grants listed (and interim/final reports)

01:47:35 Eugene Rutigliano (he/him): thank you!
